A/P II is showcasing gamut of young printmakers from Sir J.J. School of Arts, Mumbai and M.S.U. Baroda. It's focus is at highlighting different techniques of printmaking which even an avid collector of art is unaware of. The show comprises of almost 40 artists, with portfolio of 6 works each. The show covers all nuances of print techniques like etching, woodcut, aquatint, lithography, viscosity, colograph, soft ground, screen print, gum bite, serigraphy, digital, engraving, embossing and more.

Today even though artist have undoubtedly exposed and used printmaking as their language of expression yet too often the viewer and the buying public is unaware of the difference between photo mechanical reproductions, and original prints made by print makers.

As Jyoti Bhatt quotes, 'The prints are for people who have more taste than money.'

Print is an opportunity for collectors who want to get an original piece of art home without it pinching their pockets. We hope to explore and expose this process driven medium of art where the artist is involved in every stage the end is always a surprise.

Prints make fabulous gifts and personally I have always preferred gifting an art over any other thing and most of the time it's a print by a printmaker.
